

46-18-208. Termination of remaining portion of deferred or suspended sentence — motion. (1) When imposition of a sentence has been deferred or execution of a sentence has been suspended, the prosecutor or the defendant may file a motion to terminate the time remaining on the sentence if:

- (a) in the case of a deferred imposition of sentence, the defendant has served 2 years or one-half of the sentence, whichever is less, and has demonstrated compliance with supervision requirements; or
- (b) in the case of a suspended sentence:
 - (i) the defendant has served 3 years or two-thirds of the time suspended, whichever is less; and
 - (ii) the defendant has been granted a conditional discharge from supervision under 46-23-1011 and has demonstrated compliance with the conditional discharge for a minimum of 12 months.

(2) The motion must set forth the following:

- (a) why the defendant meets the time limitations set forth in subsection (1);
- (b) how the defendant has demonstrated compliance with supervision requirements; and
- (c) whether the department supports or opposes the petition.

(3) The motion must be served on the county attorney serving in the county of the presiding district court. The movant does not need to file an accompanying brief as otherwise required by Rule 2, Montana Uniform District Court Rules.

(4) The department and the county attorney shall make reasonable efforts to notify the victim. The victim shall be provided the following:

- a. A copy of the motion.
- b. Written notice that
 - (i) the victim may provide written input regarding the motion, or may ask the county attorney to state the victim's position on the motion.
 - (ii) if a hearing is set, the date, time, and place of the hearing.
 - (iii) the victim may appear and may testify at any hearing held on the motion.

(5) The court may hold a hearing on the motion. The prosecutor or the defendant may request a hearing on the motion.

(6) If the court requires a hearing on the motion, the court may grant the petition if it finds that:

- (a) termination of the remainder of the sentence is in the best interests of the defendant and society;
- (b) termination of the remainder of the sentence will not present an unreasonable risk of danger to the victim of the offense; and
- (c) the defendant has paid all restitution and court-ordered financial obligations in full.

46-23-1011. Supervision on probation. (1) The department shall supervise probationers during their probation period, including supervision after release from imprisonment imposed pursuant to 45-5-503(4), 45-5-507(5), 45-5-601(3), 45-5-602(3), 45-5-603(2)(b), or 45-5-625(4), in accord with the conditions set by a sentencing judge. If the sentencing judge did not set conditions of probation at the time of sentencing, the court shall, at the request of the department, hold a hearing and set conditions of probation. The probationer must be present at the hearing. The probationer has the right to counsel as provided in chapter 8 of this title.

(2) If the probationer is being supervised for a sexual offense as defined in 46-23-502, the conditions of probation may require the probationer to refrain from direct or indirect contact with the victim of the offense or an immediate family member of the victim. If the victim or an immediate family member of the victim requests to the department that the probationer not contact the victim or immediate family member, the department shall request a hearing with a sentencing judge and recommend that the judge add the condition of probation. If the victim is a minor, a parent or guardian of the victim may make the request on the victim's behalf.

(3) A copy of the conditions of probation must be signed by the probationer. The department may require a probationer to waive extradition for the probationer's return to Montana.

(4) The probation and parole officer shall regularly advise and consult with the probationer using effective communication strategies and other evidence-based practices to encourage the probationer to improve the probationer's condition and conduct and shall inform the probationer of the restoration of rights on successful completion of the sentence.

(5) (a) The probation and parole officer may recommend and a judge may modify or add any condition of probation or suspension of sentence at any time.

(b) The probation and parole officer shall provide the county attorney in the sentencing jurisdiction with a report that identifies the conditions of probation and the reason why the officer believes that the judge should modify or add the conditions.

(c) The county attorney may file a petition requesting that the court modify or add conditions as requested by the probation and parole officer.

(a) The court may grant the petition if the probationer does not object. If the probationer objects to the petition, the court shall hold a hearing pursuant to the provisions of 46-18-203.

(b) Except as they apply to supervision after release from imprisonment imposed pursuant to 45-5-503(4), 45-5-507(5), 45-5-601(3), 45-5-602(3), 45-5-603(2)(b), or 45-5-625(4), the provisions of 46-18-203(7)(a)(ii) do not apply to this section.

(c) The probationer shall sign a copy of new or modified conditions of probation. The court may waive or modify a condition of restitution only as provided in 46-18-246.

(6) (a) Based on the risk and needs of each individual as determined by the individual's most recent risk and needs assessment, and the probationer's or parolee's general compliance with the terms governing his or her release, the probationer or the prosecutor may file a motion recommending conditional discharge when a probationer is in compliance with the conditions of supervision when:

- (iv) a low-risk probationer has served 9 months;
- (v) a moderate-risk probationer has served 12 months;
- (vi) a medium-risk probationer has served 18 months; and
- (vii) a high-risk probationer has served 24 months.

- (7) The motion must set forth the following:
- (a) why the probationer meets the requirements of subsection (6); and
 - (b) whether the department supports or opposes the petition.
- (8) The motion must be served on the county attorney serving in the county of the presiding district court. The movant does not need to file an accompanying brief as otherwise required by Rule 2, Montana Uniform District Court Rules.
- (9) The department and the county attorney shall make reasonable efforts to notify the victim. The victim shall be provided the following:
- a. A copy of the motion.
 - b. Written notice that
 - (i) the victim may provide written input regarding the motion, or may ask the county attorney to state the victim's position on the motion.
 - (ii) if a hearing is set, the date, time, and place of the hearing.
 - (iii) the victim may appear and may testify at any hearing held on the motion.
- (10) If the county attorney concurs with the motion, or after a hearing on the motion, a judge may conditionally discharge a probationer from supervision before expiration of the probationer's sentence if:
- (a) the judge determines that a conditional discharge from supervision:
 - (i) is in the best interests of the probationer and society;
 - (ii) will not present unreasonable risk of danger to the victim of the offense; and
 - (iii) the offender has paid all restitution and court-ordered financial obligations in full.
 - (b) Subsection (6) does not prohibit a judge from revoking the order suspending execution or deferring imposition of sentence, as provided in 46-18-203, for a probationer who has been conditionally discharged from supervision.
